B. Attractive Nuisance. Property which is in an unsecured state so as to potentially constitute an attraction to children, a harbor for vagrants, criminals or other unauthorized persons, or so as to enable persons to resort thereto for the purpose of committing a nuisance or unlawful act.

C. A Building or Structure Which is in a State of Disrepair.

1. A building or structure which has exterior wall and/or roof coverings which have become so deteriorated so as to not provide adequate weather protection as to be likely to or have resulted in termite infestation or dry rot.

3. A building or structure, the exterior, walls, fences, retaining walls, driveways, or walkways of which are broken, deteriorated, or substantially defaced to the extent that the disrepair visually impacts neighboring property or presents an endangerment to public safety. For purposes of this subsection defacing includes, but is not limited to, writings, inscriptions, figures, scratches or other markings commonly referred to as "graffiti."

D. Property Inadequately Maintained.

1. Property which is inadequately maintained, such that it contains overgrown, diseased, dead, decayed or decaying trees, weeds or other vegetation which:

 - d. Include weeds or grasses exceeding 12 inches in height.
2. Property which has landscaping which is not installed or maintained as required by any permit issued pursuant to the Roseville Municipal Code or the Zoning Ordinance.
3. Property which is inadequately maintained, such that it contains garbage or rubbish, as defined in Section 9.12.010 of this code, which by reason of its location, character and visibility:

Polluted water is defined for the purpose of this chapter, as water which contains bacterial growth or algae, rubbish, refuse, debris, papers and any other foreign matter or material which, because of its nature or location, constitutes an unhealthy or unsafe condition.

I am appealing both violations on this citation. For the first violation, I am appealing for several reasons. The "debris" in my front yard was actually my Halloween decorations, some of which are on my front porch, as well. They would have been stored in my garage, but as is easily verified, my garage was damaged by a fire, in November, and, which is also easily verified, the garage reconstruction is still in process, do to circumstances beyond my control. Said "debris" was stored, temporarily, under tarp in my front yard. The inspector suggested that I put up some kind of screen or blinds on the porch, which I did, and asked me to move the items under the tarp to the back yard, which I also did. We agreed on a time period, which I complied with, and he cited me anyway.

Reason
Appeal:

The trashcan issue was that they were reported to be blocking the sidewalk. I occasionally pull the trashcans, temporarily, to the edge of my raised lot (on the sidewalk) to dump the garage and my disabled son's incontinence stuff into the trashcan. they have occasionally sat there for several minutes or more, simply because I have very little free time between taking care of him, my full-time swing shift job at the railroad, and, for half of April and May, taking care of my wife who badly broke her leg and couldn't walk at all. My son was also hospitalized for the majority of March and April, and I spent my days, from 6:30am until I had to go to work, in the hospital with him. I moved the trashcans onto the grassy area between the sidewalk and the street, and the inspector said that I couldn't store them there. I moved them to the curb and he cited me, anyway. At this time, I cannot put them in my driveway because they will block the construction on my garage. I have pictures of many of my neighbors' trashcans blocking sideways, at the curbs, and in the "landscaping areas" between the sidewalks and the street. If that is city property, the city needs to maintain it. If it's my property, and the sidewalk is city property, then I'm not blocking the sidewalk by storing my trashcans there. It's not ethical to fine me for the exact same thing most of my neighbors are guilty of.

- ☒ By checking this box, I certify that I am the individual named on the citation and am appealing the administrative citation issued to me.
- ☒ I certify under penalty of perjury that the information above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
