5. REPORTS/PRESENTATIONS

5.1. Overview of Draft Maps and Preliminary Redistricting Plan

Memo from Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell to provide an informational update and overview of the six (6) draft maps for consideration by the Independent Redistricting Commission and the Preliminary Redistricting Plan and Draft Map Analysis filed with the City Clerk on December 22, 2021.

CONTACT: Joe Mandell 916-774-5325 jmandell@roseville.ca.us

Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell made the presentation to the commission.

Lisa Larkin - previously spoke in support of Maps D, E, & F, but does fully support Map A with the adjustments made by Commissioner Julia Sweeney.

Stan Bollinger - spoke in support of Map C.

Sue Cook - inquired where she can find Map A that Commissioner Julia Sweeney entered into public comment.

City Clerk Technician Katrina Six responded the map was available to the public at the back of the meeting room with all of the other meeting materials.

For information only. No action required.

5.2. Draft Map and Community of Interest Public Testimony

Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell and Assistant City Clerk Helen Dreyer recommending the Independent Redistricting Commission receive public testimony on the six (6) draft maps and from communities of interest in accordance with Section 11.10 of Article XI of the Roseville Charter.

Helen Dreyer 916-774-5356 hdreyer@roseville.ca.us

Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell made the presentation to the commission.

Stan Bollinger - spoke in support of Map C, and requested a map on the City's website that shows the major roads.

Gretchen Littlejohn - spoke in support of Map B, remove Maps A, D, & F, and requested boundaries move as little as possible.

Steve Cho - spoke in support of Map B, and how the process has gone so far.

Judy Hansel - spoke in support of Map B.

Jay Reed - spoke in support of Map B, concerned about the legal challenge that can come out of creating new maps after moving forward with the current six maps, and spoke in opposition to Maps D, E, & F.

Carol Weaver - spoke in support of keeping the Kingswood/Kaseberg neighborhood whole.

Gwen Myers - spoke in support of Map B.

Amy Cho - spoke in support of Map B, and was unaware that maps other than the six draft maps would be considered.

Andrew Tagg - believes school districts are communities of interest, and spoke in support of Map B.

Alisa Fong - spoke in support of Map B, and does not support Maps A, D, E, & F because those residents won't be able to vote for many years.

Kathleen Crawford - Sun City would like to stay in one district, and spoke in support of Maps E & F.

Lisa Larkin - spoke in favor of making changes to the current maps to make the best map.

Shante Martin - spoke in support of Map B due to its simplicity.

Sheri Scott - spoke in support of Map B, but would like to move the boundary to include the senior living facility being built across from Eskaton.

Sue Cook - has no preference on one map, spoke in favor of keeping Sun City in District 3, Historic Sierra Vista stay with the core neighborhoods, Quail Glen, Fiddymont Farms, and Blue Oaks stay whole.

Marcus Lo Duca - spoke in support of Map B, and keeping Sun City, Quail Glen, Blue Oaks together.

For information only. No action required.

5.3. Upcoming Redistricting Meeting Schedule

Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell and Assistant City Clerk Helen Dreyer to provide an informational update on upcoming redistricting public meeting dates and an overview of final map adoption schedule for January 24, 2022.
