5.2. Overview of Draft Maps and Preliminary Redistricting Plan

Memo from Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell to provide an informational update and overview of the six (6) draft maps for consideration by the Independent Redistricting Commission and the Preliminary Redistricting Plan and Draft Map Analysis filed with the City Clerk on December 22, 2021.

CONTACT: Joe Mandell 916-774-5325 jmandell@roseville.ca.us

Senior Deputy City Attorney Joe Mandell outlined three options to the commission for adopting a final map:

Option 1) At the January 24 meeting adopt one of the current maps with no changes and no line-drawing amendments.

Option 2) At the January 24 meeting make live line-drawing amendments to the maps, adopt one maps as a draft map and publish on City website for seven days, and adopt as a final map on January 31.

Option 3) Finalize map on January 24 or January 31, publish on City website for 30 days, and adopt as a final map late February with no more public hearings unless community requests.

Jay Reed - questioned what would occur during the seven days when map is published on the City website in Option 2.

Ellen Debach-Riley - spoke in support of Maps D, E & F as they keep most neighborhood associations and historical neighborhoods intact, and allows the most opportunity for voters to vote.

April Marskell - spoke in support of Map B, and in support of an additional 30-day comment period.

Derek Pell - spoke in support of Maps D, E & F as they keep similar communities together, stated Map B could be good compromise with changes, and in support of any maps with proposed changes be made available on the City website.

Kathleen Kitchell - spoke in support of infill areas considered together, in support of Maps D, E & F, in support of considering "The Grounds" as part of the adjacent neighborhoods,

Kevin La Chance - spoke in support of Maps E & F as they keep neighborhoods together, moving Sierra Vista to District 2, keeping Kaseberg and Kingswood neighborhoods together, in support of 2-year Council terms, and stated Map B a good compromise with changes.

Jay Reed - spoke on boundaries not easily identifiable or understandable on Maps D, E & F, and too many voters unable to vote.

Marcus Lo Duca - spoke in support of Map B with changes that keeps areas of the city whole, and in opposition of voters not getting to vote.

Aldo Pineschi - spoke in support of Map B, secondly in support of Map C.

Richard Roccucci - spoke in support of Maps B, and maybe Map C, in support of small changes to the maps, looking at the big picture, and approving maps that meet the most criteria.

Kayla Scott - spoke in support of Map B as it maintains easily identifiable boundaries and is least distracting and consistent with existing boundaries, and stated Communities of Interest include non-profits.

Jeremy Scott - spoke in support of Map B.

Jeff Harper - spoke in support of Maps B.

Gary Szybowski - spoke in support of Maps E and/or F as they keep neighborhood associations together.

Cindy Mitchell - spoke in support of Map B as it keeps neighborhood associations together.

Kathleen Starts - spoke in support of Maps D, E & F, and commented that neighborhood associations are strong community agents.

Carol Weaver - spoke in support of Maps D, E & F with changes, and concerned about seven days of public input vs. 30 days.

Lisa Larkin - spoke on specific plans, and in support of two-year Council terms.

Kathleen Crawford - advised commission to adopt a map that best serves the whole city, and make changes to the map if necessary,

Billy Bennett - spoke in support of Map B.
